Project Title: Corgi Website

This site should be multiple pages, as there is definitely enough content to span multiple pages. The multiple pages are to be split up by various categories that all deal with different aspects of the history and cultural implications of Corgis as a dog breed and pet.

- Home Page/Introduction – This page should clearly introduce the topic of the site and separate the idea that the site deals with the historical and social implications of Corgis rather than a site that could be interpreted as a pet advice site or help site.
- History – History of the breed and how/why it came to be
- Modern breeds – Cardigan Corgis versus Pembroke Welsh Corgis
- Health – General health of the breed and how
- Social/Cultural Implications – The Corgi through history and how perceptions of how the
